

Weekly Parent/Carer Communication 14.11.2025

1. Key Information

Website: We are pleased to announce that the new website will be launched next week; all the weekly updates from teachers are available on the new website. There has been a technical issue this week in securing the class pages, we have been informed that this is now resolved and the website should be live shortly. We will send out further information with the link and password to access the class pages next week. Many thanks for your patience whilst this has been resolved.

Poppy Appeal & Children In Need: Thank you so much for your wonderful support and generous donations towards the Poppy Appeal and Children in Need this week. Once the fundraising donations have been counted, we will share the final funds raised with you.

Parent Communication: Thank you to the many families who continue to follow our communication policy. We kindly remind everyone that all email correspondence should be directed to the main school office: whitchurchprm@cardiff.gov.uk. To support staff wellbeing and manage workload effectively, we also ask that emails are not sent between the non-working hours of 5:30pm and 8:00am and on weekends. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

PTA Christmas Card Orders: Pupils will come home with some items from your orders today, remaining items will be dispatched next week.

PTA Christmas Raffle: Pupils will come home with tickets to sell for this year's raffle. All monies raised will go towards resources for the school. We are continuing to accept raffle prize donations. If you or your organisation would like to contribute, please contact us. Thank you for your support.

2. Key Dates For Next Week:
